

2018-2019 INTERNATIONAL YOUTH INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

LOCAL PARTNER: MOROGORO VOCATIONAL TEACHERS TRAINING COLLEGE

PLACEMENT: TANZANIA

50. Internship title
	E-Learning Enhancement Officer
Canadian Partner
	Bow Valley College
Overseas Host Organization Description
	Morogoro Vocational Teachers Training College, (MVTTC): Morogoro, Tanzania Since 2015, Bow Valley College has worked in partnership with Morogoro Vocational Teachers Training College under the Improving Skills Training for Employment Program (ISTEP-06) in Tanzania, funded by Global Affairs Canada. This project is a multi-year teacher capacity building project with oversight from CICan. Bow Valley College faculty and staff have worked with the tutors, faculty, and administrators at MVTTC to advance teaching practice, curriculum development skills, and technology capacity.
Project description
	Please provide a short description of the project(s)/area with which the intern will be associated; This internship position will build on the existing work of a Government of Canada, CICan funded project, ISTEP-06. From 2015-2018, BVC has worked with MVTTC to develop teacher curriculum training at the post graduate level. A part of this project is the Implementation of curriculum for distance learning in Moodle. The intern will support the work and vision of MVTTC to develop distance learning on campus, and to its surrounding campuses. This will include supporting student and instructors with using Moodle as an online distance learning platform.
Host Country (State/Province, City)	Related Thematic Priority Sector(s)	Crosscutting Theme(s)
Morogoro, Tanzania	Stimulating Sustainable Economic Growth	Governance Environmental Sustainability

2018-2019 INTERNATIONAL YOUTH INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

LOCAL PARTNER: MOROGORO VOCATIONAL TEACHERS TRAINING COLLEGE

PLACEMENT: TANZANIA

Overseas Job description (Activities & Deliverables)

Reporting directly to the Head of ICT, within, Morogoro Vocational Technical Training College, the focus of this internship position will be to provide support MVTTTC in its capacity to deliver e-learning to the populations it serves.

Some of the areas in which the intern may be engaged include but are not limited to:

- Engage with industry subject matter expert instructors to enhance their understanding of distance learning
- Develop and implement regional Distance Learning initiatives
- Develop and provide information for tutors/instructors about learner engagement strategies/tools within distance learning
- Support instructors in becoming familiar with tools that enhance student learning with e-learning
- Implement course designs in the Moodle Learning Management System
- Support the collaboration with the Open University of Tanzania and other stakeholders regarding MVTTTC's transition to e-learning
- Execute additional relative tasks as directed by the Head of Education and Training

Qualifications & Personal Skills

An undergraduate degree with experience as an online learner

Some instructional experience

Comfortable using Moodle, D2L, Blackboard, Adobe Connect or other e-learning platforms

The preferred candidate will possess strong skills in the following areas:

Communication skills (written and oral)

Time management and organizational skills

Capacity to work independently

Independent problem solver

Intercultural competencies

Passion for international development, Distance Learning and ICT