
Return to Campus Update/ WINTER 2022

In follow up to Bow Valley College's December 21st decision to start the new term with a temporary switch to online learning until at least January 21, 2022, please find additional information for international students.

How this impacts students inside of Canada

- Please note, that as this is a temporary measure, international students should be prepared to come to campus as soon as in-person classes resume
- As all course types will be shifted to online delivery, therefore there will not be any impact to your study permit or post-graduation work permit, per IRCC guidelines on Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP) eligibility: Coronavirus disease \(COVID-19\): International students - Canada.ca

How this impacts students outside of Canada

- You will continue with your classes as usual, as courses originally delivered online, will resume as usual for the remainder of the term
- IRCC guidelines on learning outside of Canada, will continue to apply. IRCC information on studying outside of Canada can be found here: Work in Canada after you graduate: About the post-graduation work permit - Canada.ca

How to communicate with International Department

December 24 – January 3

- International students can email ieconnect@bowvalleycollege.ca for questions during the holiday closure. Please note that service will be limited.

After January 4

- International students should access additional support and information at the International Student Welcome, as part of New Student Orientation.
- Students can meet with an International Learner Advisor as of January 10 through booking an appointment here: <https://outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/BVCInternationalBookings@bowvalleycollege.ca/bookings/>
